

The Good News within Our Heart

Once, a famous violinist came out on the stage and made the unfortunate discovery that there was something wrong with his violin. He looked for a second and then saw that it was not his famous and valuable one. He felt paralyzed for a moment, then turned to his audience and told them, “Ladies and gentlemen: I will show you that the music is not in the instrument but in the heart.”

He played as he had never played before and the music poured forth until the audience was overcome with enthusiasm and the applause almost lifted the roof off the building. Indeed, the man had revealed to them that the music was not in the machine but in his own heart.

Today, the joy of the Resurrection is still within our hearts. And, we must take to heart the words that Our Lord spoke to His disciples when He appeared to them after His resurrection: “As the Father sent Me, so I send you ... “ (John 20:21) Indeed, the Lord Himself sends us, like the apostles, to proclaim to the world that “He is risen!”

We proclaim Our Lord’s resurrection not just in hymns and inspired songs, but by the very manner in which we live our lives. “Get rid of all bitterness, all anger, harsh words, slander and malice of every kind,” says Saint Paul. “In place of these, be kind to one another, compassionate and forgiving, just as God has forgiven you in Christ!” (Ephesians 4:32) May the joy of the resurrection remain within our hearts every day of the year!
