

Surrounded by Wealth, Blind to Charity

What does the rich man do, surrounded by a great supply of many blessings beyond all numbering? In distress and anxiety, he speaks the words of poverty. He says, “What should I do?” ... He does not look to the future. He does not raise his eyes to God.

He does not count it worth his while to gain for the mind those treasures that are above in heaven. He does not cherish love for the poor or desire the esteem it gains. He does not sympathize with suffering.

It gives him no pain nor awakens his pity. Still more irrational, he settles for himself the length of his life, as if he would also reap this from the ground. He says, “I will say to myself, ‘Self, you have goods laid up for many years. Eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.’” “O rich man,” one may say, ‘You have storehouses for your fruits, but where will you receive your many years? By the decree of God, your life is shortened.’”

“God,” it tells us, “said to him, ‘You fool, this night they will require of you your soul. Whose will these things be that you have prepared?’”

We remember the millions of innocent people who perished during the state-sponsored genocide inflicted by Soviet forces upon our Ukrainian people from 1932-1933. We must remember and work to see that no one around the world, in Ukraine, or even our own nation, suffers from hunger or malnutrition. All commemorations are virtual this year.

CONCERNING FUTURE PARISH EVENTS

On October 7, the Mayor of the District of Columbia extended the Pandemic State of Emergency to December 31, 2020. As such, we will not be able to have our Christmas Bazaar this November, and most likely will not be able to have our Annual Parish Christmas Dinner/Prosfora in January. Fellowship with Cake and Coffee after the Sunday Divine Liturgies will also continue to be suspended until the end of the year.
