

The Work of the Holy Spirit

The Spirit is the source of holiness, a spiritual light, and He offers His own light to every mind to help it in its search for truth. By nature the Spirit is beyond the reach of our mind, but we can know Him by His goodness. The power of the Spirit fills the whole universe, but He gives Himself only to those who are worthy, acting in each according to the measure of his faith.

Simple in himself, the Spirit is manifold in His mighty works. The whole of His being is present to each individual; the whole of His being is present everywhere. Though shared in by many, He remains unchanged; His self-giving is no loss to Himself. Like the sunshine, which permeates all the atmosphere, spreading over land and sea, and yet is enjoyed by each person as though it were for him alone, so the Spirit pours forth His grace in full measure, sufficient for all, and yet is present as though exclusively to everyone who can receive Him. To all creatures that share in Him He gives a delight limited only by their own nature, not by His ability to give.

The Spirit raises our hearts to heaven, guides the steps of the weak, and brings to perfection those who are making progress. He enlightens those who have been cleansed from every stain of sin and makes them spiritual by communion with Himself.

From the Spirit comes foreknowledge of the future, understanding of the mysteries of faith, insight into the hidden meaning of Scripture, and other special gifts. Through the Spirit we become citizens of heaven, we are admitted to the company of the angels, we enter into eternal happiness and abide in God. Through the Spirit we acquire a likeness to God; indeed, we attain what is beyond our most sublime aspirations - we become God.

“OUT OF HIS HEART SHALL FLOW RIVERS OF LIVING WATER.”

Today we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, fifty days after Pascha. And while we hear the historical account of Pentecost read in the church today from Acts of the Apostles, we also hear in the Gospel the promise of Jesus that those who believe in him will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit which will become a life giving spring which will flow out to others.

In other words, we who have received the gift of the life of Jesus within us cannot remain simply consumers but must become, like Jesus, a people who live our life as a gift to others. “For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it” (Lk 9:24). It is in giving of our life, then, that the Christian finds his truth purpose in life.
