

Reflection on the Good Samaritan

First, we must pity the ill fortune of the man who fell unarmed and helpless among robbers, and who was so rash and unwise as to choose the road in which he could not escape the attack of robbers. For the unarmed can never escape the armed, the heedless the villain, the unwary the malicious. Since malice is ever armed with guile, fenced round with cruelty, fortified with deceit, and ready for fierce attack...

He poured in wine, that is, the blood of His passion, and oil, that is, the anointing of the chrism, that pardon might be granted by His blood, sanctification be conferred by the chrism...

The wounded parts are bound up by the heavenly Physician, and containing a salve within themselves, are by the working of the remedy restored to their former soundness. Having poured in wine and oil, he placed him upon His beast...

For the Inn is the Church, which receives travelers, who are tired with their journey through the world, and oppressed with the load of their sins; where the wearied traveler casting down the burden of his sins is relieved, and after being refreshed is restored with wholesome food. And this is what is here said, and took care of him. For outside is everything that is conflicting, hurtful and evil, while within the Inn is contained all rest and health...

He said, if you see any one oppressed, say not surely he is wicked; but be he Gentile or Jew and need help, dispute not, he has a claim to your assistance, into whatever evil he has fallen.

NOVEMBER HOLODOMOR REMEMBRANCE – 1932-1933 – 90 YEARS AGO

We remember the millions of innocent people who perished during the state-sponsored genocide inflicted by Soviet forces upon our Ukrainian people from 1932-1933. We must remember and work to see that no one around the world, in Ukraine, or even our own nation, suffers from hunger or malnutrition. Please pray for the people of Ukraine who continue to know tremendous suffering still by Russia.

ST. PHILIP’S FAST – PYLYPIVKA 2023 (NOVEMBER 15)

In preparation for Christmas and the Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord, our church begins the spiritual journey of the pre-Christmas Fast. Please prepare to worthily celebrate the Birth of the Savior of the World, Our Lord Jesus Christ. This is a voluntary fast period. Please observe it as you are able to best prepare yourself for Christmas – Good Deeds, Volunteering, Confession, Fasting.

400th Anniversary of the Martyrdom of St. Josaphat

O Saint Josaphat Pray For Ukraine!

Remembering St. Josaphat, today we must hear his great call: seek Christ in your life! Seek and find Ukraine’s dignity, freedom, strength, independence, and victory! His Beatitude Sviatoslav, the Father and Head of the UGCC, said in the Church of the Holy Trinity of the Basilian Monastery in Vilnius on the occasion of the 400th anniversary of the martyrdom of St. Josaphat. “We pray today: St. Josaphat, you are there in heaven, standing before the throne of God, as you once stood here in this church of the Holy Trinity before the face of the Eucharistic Christ. Pray for us! Please give us your strength not to languish when we are in pain! Give us the strength to realize that the fullness of victory will come to Ukraine through the power and fullness of our God, who overcomes all evil! Jesus, You anointed with the Holy Spirit, the Son of God, bless our Motherland, Ukraine, today! Give us freedom, support our army, our men and women at the front, gather the scattered, heal the wounded, free those in Russian captivity, and find those missing! Jesus, wipe away the tears of the Ukrainian mother and woman, the tears of the Ukrainian child who miss fathers and mothers! Jesus, You who fulfill everything, fulfill the dream of Ukraine about true, just, and complete peace in You!”
