The Divine Liturgy

A Choral Compilation
(English)

UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE HOLY FAMILY
4250 Harewood Road NE
Washington, DC 20017
The choir of the Ukrainian Catholic National Shrine of the Holy Family has been singing the Divine Liturgy since the Shrine’s earliest days in the 1950s. The original choral binders included hand-written transcriptions and photocopies of works by various composers. Other parts of the liturgy were retained in an oral, unwritten musical tradition.

This compilation builds on that collection and tradition. The composed works draw on available source material to preserve the composers’ original voicings and arrangements to the degree possible. The traditional chants and melodies draw on documented codified versions. All of the music has been adapted to accommodate the latest Ukrainian and English-language texts authorized by the 1988 Synod of the Hierarchy of the Ukrainian Catholic Church. These settings represent the compilers’ best efforts to preserve the music in service to these texts of the Divine Liturgy. The collection has been organized to allow for further evolution and to enable introducing new selections.

Except where a copyright is designated, the music is believed to be in the public domain. The Synod of the Hierarchy of the Ukrainian Catholic Church holds the copyright for the texts.

These scores are property of the Ukrainian Catholic National Shrine of the Holy Family, 4250 Harewood Rd. NE, Washington, DC 20017. They may be freely reproduced only for “not-for-profit” uses. Please direct any comments, corrections, questions or requests to: UCNS.HFChoir@gmail.com

We thank You, O Lord God of hosts, that You have deemed us worthy to stand now at Your holy altar, falling before Your mercies for our sins and for the sins of ignorance of the people. Accept our prayers, O God, and make us worthy to offer You petitions, supplications and unbloody sacrifices for all Your people. By the power of Your Holy Spirit, enable us whom You appointed for Your ministry to call upon You always and everywhere, without condemnation and without stumbling, in the pure testimony of our conscience, so that, hearing us, You may be propitious to us in the abundance of Your goodness.

Once again and many times we fall before You, and ask You, O good and loving Lord, that, having looked upon our petition, You might cleanse our souls and bodies of every defilement of flesh and spirit, and might permit us to stand guiltless and uncondemned before Your holy altar. Grant also, O God, to those praying with us growth in life, in faith, and in spiritual understanding. Grant that they who serve You with fear and love, may always partake of Your Holy Mysteries without blame and condemnation, and be made worthy of Your heavenly kingdom.

No one who is bound to carnal desires or pleasures is worthy to approach You or to draw near to You, or to minister to You, O King of Glory. For to serve You is great and awesome, even to the heavenly powers. And yet, because of Your love for mankind—a love which cannot be expressed or measured—you became man, unchanging and unchanging. You were appointed our High Priest, and, as Master of all, handed down to us the priestly ministry of this liturgical and unbloody sacrifice. You alone, O Lord, our God, have dominion over heaven and earth. You are borne on the throne of the cherubim; You are Lord of the seraphim and King of Israel; You alone are holy and rest in the holies. I implore You, therefore, Who alone are good and ready to listen: look upon me, Your sinful and useless servant; cleanse my heart and soul of the evil that lies on my conscience. By the power of Your Holy Spirit enable me, who am clothed with the grace of the priesthood, to stand before this, Your holy table, and offer the sacrifice of Your holy and most pure Body and precious Blood. Bending my neck, I approach and I petition You: turn not Your face from me nor reject me from among Your children, but allow these gifts to be offered to You by me, Your sinful and unworthy servant. For it is You Who offer and You Who are offered; it is You Who receive and You Who are given, O Christ our God, and we give glory to You, together with Your eternal Father and Your most holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father. Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit He was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures: He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father [and the Son]. With the Father and the Son He is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(kneel)

It is right and just to sing of You, to bless You, to praise You, to thank You, to worship You everywhere in Your domain; for You are God — ineffable, inconceivable, invisible, incomprehensible, always existing and ever the same — You and Your only-begotten Son and Your Holy Spirit. You brought us from nothingness into being and, after we fell, You raised us up again. You did not cease doing everything until You led us to heaven and granted us Your future kingdom. For all this we give thanks to You, to Your only-begotten Son, and to Your Holy Spirit; for all things which we know and do not know, the benefits bestowed upon us both manifest and hidden. We thank You also for this Liturgy which You have deigned to accept from our hands, even though there stand before You thousands of archangels, and tens of thousands of angels, the cherubim and seraphim, six-winged and many-eyed hovering aloft on their wings.

Exclamation:

Singing, crying, exclaiming, and saying the triumphal hymn.

Choir: Holy, holy, holy Lord of Sabaoth, heaven and earth are full of Your glory! Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

With these blessed powers, O Master, Who love mankind, we too cry out and say: Holy are You — truly, all holy — You and Your only-begotten Son and Your Holy Spirit. Holy are You — truly, all holy — and magnificent is Your glory. You so loved Your world as to give Your only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life. After He had come and fulfilled the whole divine plan for our sake, on the night He was given over — or, rather, gave Himself for the life of the world — He took bread into His holy, most pure and immaculate hands, gave thanks, blessed, sanctified and broke it; He gave it to His holy disciples and apostles, saying:

Take, eat: This is my body, which is broken for you for the forgiveness of sins.

Choir: Amen.

Priest: In like manner the cup after the supper, saying:

Drink of it, all of you. This is my blood of the New Covenant, which is poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

For St. John, the prophet, forerunner and baptist; for the holy, glorious, and all-gracious apostles; for Saint N. (N.), whose memory we celebrate; and for all Your saints. Through their supplications, visit us, O God.

And remember all who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising to eternal life.

He mentions by name the deceased whom he wishes to commend.

And grant them rest in a place enlightened by the light of Your countenance.

Further, we pray to You: Remember, O Lord, the entire orthodox episcopate, rightly imparting the word of Your truth, the entire priesthood, the deaconate in Christ, and every sacred order.

Further, we offer You this rational worship for the whole world, for the holy, catholic and apostolic Church, for those who live chaste and holy lives, for our nation, and for our government, and for all in the military. Grant them, O Lord, a peaceful governance so that in their tranquility we may be able to lead calm and quiet lives in all piety and dignity!

Priest: Among the first, remember, O Lord, our most holy universal Pontiff, N., Pope of Rome; our most blessed Major Archbishop, N., our most reverent Metropolitan, N., our God-loving Bishop N. (wherever it is). For the sake of Your holy churches, grant that they may live in peace, safety, honor and health for many years, and rightly impart the word of Your truth.

Choir: And remember all men and all women.

Remember, O Lord, this city in which we live (or this village in which we live, or this monastery in which we live) and every city and country and the faithful who live in them. Remember, O Lord, the sea and travelers, the sick and the suffering, those held captive and their salvation. Remember, O Lord, those who hear good works in Your holy churches and remembering the poor. Send down Your mercy upon all of us.

Priest: And grant that with one voice and one heart we may glorify and sing the praises of Your most honored and magnificent name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

Choir: Amen.

Priest: And may the mercies of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, be with all of you.

Choir: And with your spirit.

Deacon:

Having remembered all the saints, again and again in peace let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

For the precious Gifts which have been presented and consecrated, let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

That our loving God, Who has received them as a spiritual fragrance upon His holy, heavenly and mystical altar, may send down upon us in return His divine grace and the gift of the Holy Spirit, let us pray.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

That we may be delivered from all tribulation, wrath, and misfortune, let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

We place before You our whole life and hope, O loving Master; and we ask, we pray and we entreat You: Make us worthy to partake with a pure conscience of Your awesome and heavenly Mysteries at this sacred and spiritual table, for forgiveness of sins, for the pardon of offenses, for fellowship of the Holy Spirit, for the inheritance of the kingdom of heaven, for confidence before You, and not for judgment or condemnation.

Deacon:

Help and save, have mercy and protect us, O God, by Your grace.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

That this whole day may be perfect, holy, peaceful, and sinless, let us ask the Lord.

Choir: Grant this, O Lord.

For an angel of peace, a faithful guide, a guardian of our souls and bodies, let us ask the Lord.

Choir: Grant this, O Lord.

For the forgiveness and remission of our sins and offenses, let us ask the Lord.

Choir: Grant this, O Lord.

For all that is good and beneficial for our souls and for peace for the world, let us ask the Lord.

Choir: Grant this, O Lord.

That we may spend the rest of our lives in peace and repentance, let us ask the Lord.

Choir: Grant this, O Lord.

For a Christian end to our lives, one that is painless, unashamed, and peaceful; and for a good defense at the awesome tribunal of Christ, let us ask the Lord.

Choir: Grant this, O Lord.

Having asked for unity of the faith and for the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, let us commend ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

Choir: To You, O Lord.

Priest: Make us worthy, O Master, with confidence and without condemnation to dare call You, the heavenly God, Father, and say:

Choir: Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Choir: Amen.

Priest: Peace be with all.

Choir: And with Your spirit.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord.

Choir: To You, O Lord.

We give You thanks, O invisible King, for by Your infinite power You created all things and, in Your great mercy, brought all things from nothingness into being. Look down from heaven, O Master, upon those who have bowed their heads to You: for they have not bowed them down to flesh and blood, but to You, the awesome God. Therefore, O Master, make smooth the ways that lie before us all for our good and in accord with each one’s personal need: sail with seafarers; travel with travelers; heal the sick, O Physician of our souls and bodies.

Priest: Through the grace, mercies and loving-kindness of Your only-begotten Son with Whom You are blessed together with Your most holy, good and life-giving Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

After the Communion verse, recite the

Prayer before Communion:

Then the faithful recite aloud:

I believe, O Lord, and confess that You are truly Christ, the Son of the living God, Who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am first.

Accept me this day, O Son of God, as a partaker of Your Mystical Supper. I will not tell the mystery to Your enemies, nor will I give You a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief, I confess to You:

Remember me, O Lord, when You come into Your kingdom.

Remember me, O Master, when You come into Your kingdom.

Remember me, O Holy One, when You come into Your kingdom.

May the partaking of Your Holy Mysteries, O Lord, be unto me not for judgement or condemnation but for the healing of soul and body.

God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.

I have sinned without number, forgive me, O Lord.
Deacon: Master, break the holy Bread.

Priest: Broken and distributed is the Lamb of God — broken and not divided, always eaten and never consumed — but sanctifying those who partake.

Deacon: Master, complete the holy chalice.

Deacon: Amen. I Master, bless the warm water.

Priest: Blessed be the warming of Your holy Gifts always now and forever and ever. Amen.

Priest: Deacon, approach.

Deacon: Master, give me the precious and holy Body of our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Priest: The precious and holy and most pure Body of our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ, is given to the reverend deacon N., for the forgiveness of his sins and for life everlasting.

In like manner, the priest, taking one particle of the holy Bread, says:

The precious and most holy Body of our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ, is given to me, N., a priest, for the forgiveness of my sins and for life everlasting. Amen.

He then bows his head and pray, saying: I believe, O Lord:

I, the servant of God, N., a priest, partake of the precious and holy Blood of our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of my sins and for life everlasting. Amen.

This has touched my lips and shall remove my wickedness and purge my sins.

Priest: Deacon, approach.

Deacon: Behold, I approach our Immortal King and God, Master, give me the precious and holy Blood of our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Priest: The servant of God, deacon N., partakes of the precious and holy Blood of our Lord and God and Savior, Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of his sins and for life everlasting.

This has touched your lips and shall remove your wickedness, and purge your sins.

Deacon: Approach with the fear of God and with faith.
